

A TULANE STUDENT'S GUIDE TO

Uptown

New Orleans

1

TULANE UNIVERSITY

Tulane's Campus is a staple of uptown. Though the architecture building, Richardson Memorial Hall, is under construction, there are lots of beautiful spaces to check out, both new and old!

2

AUDUBON PARK

A nearly 350-acre park, Audubon is a popular destination amongst New Orleans residents. Especially on sunny days, students love to come here and study, exercise, or just enjoy the outdoors!

3

SMALL CENTER FOR COLLABORATIVE DESIGN

The Small Center is the community design center for the Tulane School of Architecture. The Small Center creates opportunities for Tulane students to collaborate with and make an impact on New Orleans!

4

FRERET STREET

This area of Freret Street has lots of casual dining options that students love, especially because it's within walking distance of campus. Some favorites include Val's, Dat Dog, Humble Bagel, and Mint!

5

MAPLE STREET

Another area within walking distance of campus with some great dining options. Some favorites here include Fresco, Maple Street Cafe, Satsuma Maple, and Green Olives Cafe!

6

ST. CHARLES AVENUE

One of the most picture-esque streets. Be sure to ride the streetcar and if you're looking for a restaurant to hop off the line to eat at Superior Seafood, Superior Grill, The Chloe, and Lula Restaurant Disterilly are great!

7

MAGAZINE STREET

Another New Orleans staple, Magazine Street is a great spot for a nice stroll with lots of shopping, dining, and coffee options! Some of those dining options include Shaya, The Rum House, Joey K's, and The Bower.

8

RUE DE LA COURSE

A very popular breakfast spot amongst Tulanians! Students love to grab a coffee and stay to study in this historic bank building turned into a coffee shop.

9

THE LABYRINTH CAFE

Conveniently located just off-campus, Tulane students love to go to the Labyrinth for lunch with their delicious food and sometimes they even have live music events!
